

June Character Counts – Courage Award Winners

Grades 2-4

Alexis Brundige	shows courage in our classroom when she participates in classroom discussions and answers questions. She was also one of the readers for our rainforest performance this spring and had to read in front of a large audience. Alexis shows courage with her friendships as well. She is a kind friend and is always willing to stand up if she feels something isn't right or someone has done something hurtful to one of her friends.
Julia Mastromarchi	- for showing your positive and brave spirit when facing new and/or uncomfortable situations without showing fear or hesitation.
Molly Seymour-	For showing courage to stand up for others when they need help. Molly will speak up even in difficult situations.
Senica Clarkson.	Senica shows courage by taking responsibility for her actions, telling the truth, and deciding to make the right choices. Senica has grown in all these areas this year, and I am really proud of her!
Ashleigh Herrington	- Ashleigh showed courage when she tried out for the school play this year. She was nervous at first and thought she wanted to quit after the first days of practice. I told her to stick with it and give it a chance since it was her first year being in the play. Ashleigh did even though it was hard for her and she did an amazing job! So proud of her for sticking with something even when it was hard and uncomfortable.
Nevaeh Snedecor	- she always sticks up for her friends when she sees that something is unfair
Thomas Chetwynd.	Thomas has the courage to try new things, even though they may be challenging. He also shows courage by doing what he knows is right, whether he is in class, on the playground or in the lunchroom. Thomas demonstrates courage through his words and actions and is a great role model for others!
Marie Ackerley	Marie showed courage when she moved here from downstate late in the school year. Marie jumped right in to what the class was doing, participating, getting to know the students, and trying her best.
Jennifer Tracey	For always being positive even when she had to go through a difficult situation; Jen fought through and showed bravery! Jen has the courage to be positive even when faced with a challenge!
Autumn Wescott	Autumn shows great courage when faced with an unfamiliar challenge. Mrs. Pruiksma has seen her building up her confidence with self talk, then see her take a deep breath and thengo for it! She is willing to try new challenges and tasks with bravery and courage.
Matthew Jesmain	for being brave when he meets new experiences or difficult situations. He faces his fears with confidence and is always willing to try new things.
