

FRIENDSHIP AWARD WINNERS

Oliver Seymour	For always being there to help a friend out!
Blake Weber	will be receiving the friendship award for always being a kind friend to his peers and making sure they are ok when they get sad.
Isobel Hanby	Isobel is a role model student for how a friend should be! She greets everyone each morning, and regularly compliments both students and staff. She is kind, caring, and always includes others.
Fallon Walters	for being a caring and thoughtful friend. She is always willing to help someone and makes everyone feel like they are apart of our classroom community. Fallon is a great friend!
Jackson Wheeler	He is kind and compassionate all the time. Jackson Is thoughtful and helpful! He is a great friend.
Ava Brundige	for always being kind and helping others. She always includes others when playing and does her best to console a friend who may need it.
Sophia Fuller	Sophia always uses kind words with her friends and is always willing to give a helping hand.
Neveah Espinoza	Neveah is kind, helpful and considerate to all of her classmates and teachers.
Grace Reynolds	Grace always thinks of others, is considerate of other people's feelings, and does kind gestures to show others that she cares about them.
Gabriella Madonia	shows friendship by attentively listening to her friends and peers, caring for her friends feelings, including others to join her in work and play, and has patience with everyone around her.
Brielle Chapko	Brielle always extends her heart and a helping hand to everyone she sees. She notices when someone feels left out and asks the person to join her group. Not only does she have kind words to say to others but she always uses kind gestures, like a smile and patience, which makes others feel cared about.
Jude Jerome	Jude is kind to everyone and goes out of his way to do things for others just to make them happy. He is helpful, respectful and includes everyone in what he is doing. He is a good friend to all.
Emil Schmidt	Emil is a great friend to everyone in our class. He doesn't care who you are, he is always willing to lend a helping hand, play a game with you, or be a respectful partner. Emil is always modeling what a good friend looks like!
Azya Hamilton	According to her classmates, Azya smiles at you and you feel better. She pays more attention to you. She is a great listener. She is funny, friendly and encouraging to us. Azya will include you in whatever she is doing.
Todd Bauer	He is always a good friend to everyone. Even though Todd is new to our class, he is kind and caring and sticks up for his classmates. He is willing to help anyone and treats everyone with kindness.
William Cottrell	William is such a kind friend to everyone. He makes sure that everyone is included. William will also be a partner with anyone in the classroom. He has a huge and sensitive heart. He is always smiling and making others feel good!
Rian Ham	Rian is kind and considerate to everyone and always makes sure that everyone is included. She is loyal and supportive of her friends. Her words and actions show the true meaning of friendship!
Annamay Masterson	Annamay is warm, compassionate, and trustworthy. Her ability to be a friend to all has made Room 59 a better place to learn and grow.
Ella Waldron	Ella was nominated by her classmates for this award from being a great friend! They nominated her because she always stays focused, she helps and cares for everybody, she helps friends and classmates, and she is thoughtful!
Kaylee Smith	It is no surprise that Kaylee was voted on for the recipient of Mrs. Pruiksma's friendship award. Kaylee is always ready to help a classmate and it is accompanied with a kind and genuine smile. Kaylee is someone we all can count on!