

Weekly Happenings at The Elementary School:

January 12, 2018

Remember: School is closed on Monday January 15th in observance of Martin Luther King's birthday.

Mr. Zeger is a published illustrator.... Again!

Mr. Zeger has illustrated a book by Robert Constant called, Hey Tuskegee! The book is just being published, and is the first children's book about historic Tuskegee University. We'll have more information coming soon, but in the meantime, please visit the following link to see a preview of the book. Congratulations Mr. Zeger!
<http://campuslately.com/tuskegee-alumnus-robert-constant-writes-hey-tuskegee-childrens-book/>

Kindergarten Registration - calling all children who will be 5 years old by 12/1/18, they are eligible to attend kindergarten in September. You can call the Elementary office at 518-753-4458, ext 3506 OR email ckinnicutt@hoosicvalley.k12.ny.us to register your child. All incoming students need to be screened. Once the screening dates are confirmed, we will post to the website. Registration packets will be mailed out one month prior.

D.A.R.E. Graduation

Monday, January 22 at 1:00pm in the Elementary Auditorium for the 5th graders.

Superintendent's Conference Day

Friday, January 26th - No School - Staff Only