Dear Applicant:

Enclosed please find the substitute employment application package you requested. This package consists of the following forms:

1. An employment application.
2. Three reference forms. Have the individuals mail the completed form to the Central Offices.
3. Statement of Child Abuse together with a Memorandum. After reading the memorandum (which you keep) sign the Statement and return.
4. Employment Eligibility Verification (Form I-9). This form verifies you are a U.S. Citizen. Fill out and sign Part I of the form. Our office fills our Part 2, but in order to do that we must have proof of your citizenship. The most common way to prove citizenship is a driver's license and your birth certificate or social security card. We must see the originals.
5. Legislation requires all school employees to receive fingerprint clearance. The cost ($99.70) and scheduling for fingerprinting is the responsibility of all employees. Instructions for the process through www.IdentoGo.com will be provided once Board approved for substituting.

No action will be taken upon your application until the above items have been completed. Once your file is complete you may be called for an interview. An interview does not indicate that your name will be submitted to the Board of Education for approval nor does approval by the Board of Education indicate you will be called for work.

MEMORANDUM

INTRODUCTION

IMMUNITY OF THE REPORTER

To encourage prompt and complete reporting of suspected child abuse and maltreatment, Social Services Law 419 affords the mandated reporter protection against incurring personal liability for making a report. Any person, official, or institution that acts in good faith in the making of a report, the taking of photographs, or the removal or keeping of a child pursuant to the law, has immunity from any liability, civil or criminal, that might be a result of such action. For the purpose of any proceeding, civil or criminal, the good faith of any such person, official or institution required to report cases of child abuse or maltreatment or providing a service pursuant to Social Services Law 424 shall be presumed, provided that such person, official or institution was acting in the discharge of their duties and within the scope of their employment, and such liability did not result from the willful misconduct or gross negligence of such person, official or institution.

PENALTIES FOR FAILURE TO REPORT

Any person, official, or institution required by the law to report a case of suspected child abuse or maltreatment, who willfully fails to do so, may be guilty of a Class A misdemeanor. Furthermore, any person, official, or institution required by the law to report a case of suspected child abuse or maltreatment who knowingly and willfully fails to do so, may be civilly liable for the damages proximately caused by such failure. Social Services Law 420.

NOTE: This memorandum has been adapted from a publication of the New York State Department of Social Services, Child Protective Services, entitled Mandated Reporter Manual. It has been updated to reflect changes that have been made in the law since the reporter was issued in 1984 and modified to make it particularly applicable to the education community.

The laws of 1988 added §209-a to the Education Law. This section, which becomes effective April 1, 1989, provides that any school that employs persons mandated to report suspected incidents of child abuse or maltreatment is required to provide, at the school's expense, all such current and new employees with written information explaining the reporting requirements. This document has been drafted in order to comply with the new law.

DEFINITIONS

- A. "Abused child" means a child less than 18 years of age whose parent or other person legally responsible for his care
1. inflicts or allows to be inflicted upon such child physical injury by other than accidental means which causes or creates a substantial risk of death, or serious or protracted disfigurement, or protracted impairment of physical or emotional health, or protracted loss or impairment of the function of any bodily organ, or
  2. creates or allows to be created a substantial risk of physical injury to such child by other than accidental means which would be likely to cause death or serious or protracted disfigurement, or protracted impairment of physical or emotional health, or protracted loss or impairment of the function of any bodily organ, or
  3. commits, or allows to be committed, a sex offense against a child, as defined by the penal law; allows, permits or encourages such child to engage in any act described in sections 230.25, 230.30 and 230.32 of the penal law; commits any of the acts described in section 255.25 of the penal law; or allows such child to engage in acts or conduct described in article two hundred and sixty-three of the penal law provided, however, that (a) the collaboration requirements contained in the penal law and (b) the age requirement for the application of article two hundred sixty-three of such law shall not apply to proceedings under this article.
- B. "Maltreated child" includes a child under 18 years of age:
- Defined as a neglected child by the Family Court Act (FCA). The FCA defines "neglected child" as a child less than 18 years of age
1. whose physical, mental or emotional condition has been impaired or is in imminent danger of becoming impaired as a result of the failure of his parent or other person legally responsible for his care to exercise a minimum degree

- a. In supplying the child with adequate food, clothing, shelter or education in accordance with the provisions of part one of article sixty-five of the education law, or medical, dental, optometrical or surgical care, though financially able to do so or offered financial or other reasonable means to do so; or
  - b. In providing the child with proper supervision or guardianship, by unreasonably inflicting or allowing to be inflicted harm or a substantial risk thereof, including the infliction of excessive corporal punishment; or by misusing a drug or drugs; or by misusing alcoholic beverages to the extent that he loses self-control of his actions; or by any other acts of a similarly serious nature requiring the aid of the court; provided, however, that where the respondent is voluntarily and regularly participating in a rehabilitative program, evidence that the respondent has repeatedly misused a drug or drugs or alcoholic beverages to the extent that he loses self-control of his actions shall not establish that the child is a neglected child in the absence of evidence establishing that child's physical, mental or emotional condition has been impaired or is in imminent danger of becoming impaired as set forth in paragraph 1 of this subdivision; or
2. who has been abandoned, in accordance with the definition or other criteria set forth in subdivision five of section three hundred and eighty-four-b of the social services law, by his parents or other persons legally responsible for his care.

PERSONS AND OFFICIALS REQUIRED TO REPORT SUSPECTED CASES OF CHILD ABUSE OR MALTREATMENT

School Officials, among others, are required under Social Services Law 413 to report or cause a report to be made when they have reasonable cause to suspect that a child coming before them in their professional or official capacity is an abused or maltreated child, or when they have reasonable cause to suspect that a child is an abused or maltreated child where the parent or the person legally responsible for such child comes before them in their professional or official capacity and states from personal knowledge facts, conditions or circumstances which, if correct, would render the child an abused or maltreated child.

Whenever a school official suspects child abuse or maltreatment and is acting in his/her professional or official capacity as a member of the staff of a school, the reporter should immediately notify the person in charge, or his/her designated agent, who will then also become responsible for reporting or causing a report to be made. However, nothing in the law is intended to require more than one report from any school.

HOW TO REPORT

Social Services Law 415 provides that whenever child abuse or maltreatment is suspected, a report should be made immediately — at any time of the day and on any day of the week — by telephone. Additionally, a written report should be filed within forty-eight hours of the oral report.

Oral reports should be made to the State Central Register of Child Abuse and Maltreatment (SCR) maintained by the New York State Department of Social Services, by using the statewide, toll free telephone number:

1-800-342-3720

A written report must be filed with the local Child Protective Service (CPS) within forty-eight hours of the oral report. In preparing the written report, persons should complete form DSS-2221A-Report of Suspected Child Abuse or Maltreatment. This form can be obtained from the local child protective service.

OBLIGATIONS OF A REPORTER

The obligations of the reporter extend beyond making an oral and written report of suspected child abuse and maltreatment. In accordance with Social Services Law 418, any person or official required to report may take or cause to be taken, at public expense, color photographs of the areas of trauma visible on a child who is the subject of a report and, if medically indicated, may cause x-rays to be taken of the child. Any photographs or x-rays taken must be sent to the local child protective service at the time the DSS-2221A is sent or as soon thereafter as possible.

MANDATORY REPORTING OF DEATHS TO MEDICAL EXAMINER OR CORONER

In accordance with Social Services Law 418, the appropriate medical examiner or coroner must be notified by a mandated reporter, as well as a local child protective service case worker, when such person has reasonable cause to suspect that a child has died as a result of child abuse or maltreatment.

Statement of Child Abuse:

As a school employee, you are required by law, to report suspected cases of child abuse of which you may be aware. The Building Principal is responsible for receiving reports of child abuse, while the School Nurse may receive reports in the absence of the Building Principal.

An employee who fails to report a case of abuse of which he or she is aware is guilty of a Class A misdemeanor. However, mandated reporters, who in good faith, make a report or take photos for the same purpose are immune from either civil or criminal actions. "Good faith" is presumed provided the employee is acting within the scope of his or her duties.
