Recessional

Fireheart

Will's spirit will never be broken -

Rough, calloused exterior, his heart was golden.

He liked loud country music, wore a big cowboy hat,

Horse riding and dream chasing, they can't take away that.

Free-spirited, funny, and forever will be missed,

We remember the things that Will would insist --

Like others come first -- Always -- words he lived by,

Strength, dedication, and chivalry of a true cowboy.

He could bring light into a dull, dark day,

Always happy, they will always say.

In Memory of William F. Rowe

Alma Mater

Hail to thee, our Alma Mater,

Praise we'll ever bring,

To our own dear Hoosic Valley,

We forever sing.

Loyal sons and loyal daughters

Often drift afar,

But with thoughts of your bright hours,

Proud and happy are.

O'er the shadows of our valleys,

Crowned by rolling hills,

'Tis a memory ever shining,

And our hearts it fills.

Loyally we'll ever praise thee,

School that we revere,

Hoosic Valley Central, ever,

Alma Mater dear.
