Senior Awards: Band

The next set of awards are given only to seniors who display the qualities needed to earn these national awards. We are very proud of our senior class and would like to recognize the following individuals for their hard work in the band program.

The Sempre Fidelis Award is given yearly by the United States Marines Youth Foundation to seniors showing excellence in musicianship and leadership. This year's winner is Molly Coons.

The Patrick S. Gilmore Award was established in 1994, the award aims to recognize seniors who exemplify the ideals of Patrick S. Gilmore (1829-1892). Gilmore led the way for Sousa's success and was "instrumental" in creating the modern wind band. The winners of this award are Taylor Champagne & Alexis Parry.

The Director's Award for Band is the second highest honor for seniors in the band program. The recipient must demonstrate dedication, loyalty, character, and discipline to the band program. I am honored to give this award to Paige Nightingale and Gregory Wolosen this year.

The John Phillip Sousa Award is the highest honor a senior in the band program can receive. The student must demonstrate the highest levels of dedication, loyalty, character, and discipline to the band program while achieving the highest musical standards required of instrumental music. I am delighted to present this year's award to Hunter Galvin.

Senior Awards: Chorus

The Navy Music Achievement Award is given yearly by the United States Navy to a senior who has shown great achievement in music. This year's winner is Camille Coyne.

The Fred Waring Director's Award for Chorus is the second highest honor for seniors in the choral program. Fred Waring (1900-1984) was one of the leading choral directors of the 20th century. He composed and arranged music, and his choral group, The Pennsylvanians, spread the popularity of singing. His name was recently added to the Director's Award for Chorus with the endorsement of his widow Virginia. The Fred Waring Director's Award for Chorus[®] recognizes the talent and enthusiasm of outstanding choral members. I am proud to announce this year's winner, William Morris.
